

Hello, My Name is

Brad Pilcher

About Me

I'm a 35-year-old designer from Atlanta, with more than a dozen years of experience in arts programming, communications, and media.

My Hobbies & Interests

Contact Me

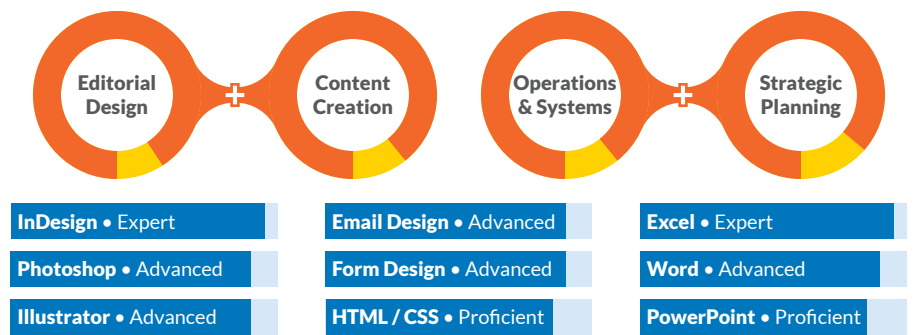

Phone 770-401-6600

Email iam@bradpilcher.com

Social @bradpilcher

My Skills & Specialties

My Work

Associate Director @ Atlanta Jewish Film Festival

August 2012 - Present

Joining the staff after a five year contract relationship, I manage programming, operations, and communications. I helped secure the organization's independence in 2014 and "world's largest Jewish film festival" status in 2015.

Director of Communications @ The Temple

January 2010 - August 2012

I consolidated disparate programs and divisions into a cohesive rebranding, as well as managed and executed all communications across various channels.

Director of New Media @ Jewish Funds for Justice

January 2009 - October 2009

Following a merger of multiple social justice non-profits, I developed social and digital media strategies and assets to help link the various divisions.

Creative Director @ Next Marketing

August 2008 - January 2009

Tasked with growing the in-house design capacity for this established firm, which specializes in experiential marketing, I crafted a suite of rebranded materials.

Managing Editor @ American Jewish Life Magazine

January 2005 - January 2008

I oversaw publication layout and production for each bimonthly issue, as well as performed writing, editing, and web development duties.

Special Projects Manager @ Turner Broadcasting

March 2004 - January 2005

Within the legal department's records archive, I managed special projects. In one such project, I integrated international offices into a unified computer system.

My Education

Film & Communications • B.A.

Georgia State University

August 2008

Religious Studies • B.A.

Georgia State University

August 2008